

Link-up approval gained

We are pleased to announce that we have completed our registration with Link-up.

Link-up is the official procurement portal for the rail industry and our registration will mean that potential customers can have confidence in Laser Process without, first, having to go through the usual vendor appraisal process.

With billions of pounds in funding announced for the rail industry over the next few years it puts us in a great place to take advantage of the opportunities that will arise.

23/10/13 Laser Process - David Lindsey <dl@laserprocess.co.uk>